WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This program is suitable for all civil and criminal litigators who want to increase their skill level and confidence in handling witnesses.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Even the strongest case depends upon the words and impressions created by witnesses. The ability to effectively present your witnesses, or to successfully disrupt opposing witnesses defines the great advocate. Are you ready to take your skills from good to great? Don't miss this highly practical program, with experienced litigator and acclaimed advocacy teacher Steve Easton in which he synthesizes the rules of the courtroom with the craft of advocacy, to provide an indispensable guide for handling witnesses before and at trial. In just three hours, you'll improve your ability to:

- Prepare a witness for trial or discovery
- Know when to stay out of the witness's way - and when (and how) to save a struggling witness
- Put Irving Younger's 10 Commandments of Cross – with Easton's 10 contemporary corollaries – to work for you
- Identify problems in cross and fix them in redirect

Mark your calendar now for this essential presentation on the key principles and practices that underlie effective witness preparation and questioning!
