WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This program will appeal to solo and small firm practitioners who want to better understand their tax responsibilities and be more prepared for tax-time.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

You've spent years honing your skills to become a great lawyer but building a successful practice also includes planning for your own taxes. Make tax-time a little easier this year with this highly practical webinar designed for solo lawyers and small law firms. Greg London, CPA, CA and Partner, Canadian Tax with BDO will review important tax planning considerations for lawyers who have incorporated and for those who file personally. You'll learn about tax credits, filings, making instalments, income splitting, recent government updates, and what Greg is seeing from the Canada Revenue Agency in practice. Along the way Greg will clear up deduction grey areas, dispel common myths, and share helpful tips to give your business a boost! There's still time to enhance your understanding of tax planning and avoid surprises before filing this year's returns! Join us and reduce tax-time stress and guesswork, so you can concentrate on making next year your firm's best year yet!
